

THE PETS OF THE WEEK

The dogs of the week are Ike, a male, and Tina, a female; Ike is 4 and Tina is 2. They are black and brown boxer mixes: We came into the shelter together as strays. We were in very poor shape, but the shelter staff nursed us back to health and now we are ready to make a brand new start. It would be nice if we could go into a home together, but it's not necessary. We like to go on walks and run around in the play yard. Adoption Fee: $160 each.

The small critter of the week is Georgia, a 3-year-old tropical colored female lovebird: I am a very social girl! I like to be around you, and, although I will chirp, you can't train me to whistle or talk. I require a long-term commitment of about 15 to 20 years. I like to play with and make nests from strips of unprinted paper. Adoption Fee: $50.

The cat of the week is Bobby, a 2-year-old gray Russian blue male: I am a big boy who has a very mellow personality. I am very sweet and like to cuddle up in any warm, open lap. I am a nuzzler as well, and I will give you an Eskimo kiss! Adoption fee is $95.

ABOUT ADOPTING: To make arrangements to adopt a pet at the Harford County Humane Society's animal shelter in Fallston, call 410-836-1090. The shelter is at 2208 Connolly Road in Fallston.

PEOPLE

A Boys and Girls Clubs get-together

A birthday charity benefit for the Boys and Girls Clubs and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society was held on Dec. 4, 2010 to raise money for the club in Aberdeen and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. The Keystone Club, which is a teen community service club at the Boys and Girls Clubs helped during the event.

The Knights of Columbus Havre de Grace Council 2002 raised more than $500 for The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region. Pictured, from left: Fred Koenig, Torri Dietrich and Dan Hilliard.

13 graduating from Friends

Thirteen eighth grade students will graduate from Harford Friends School this spring. The following students are listed with their high school destination: Trevor Richardson (Jemicy School), Elsie Buchanan-Wollaston (Havre de Grace High School), Ryan Bunting (West Nottingham Academy), Reagan Fresnel-Hicks (Roland Park Country School), Jordan Hartman (Friends School of Baltimore), Zoe Russo (International Baccalaureate Program at Edgewood High School), Travis Manar (West Nottingham Academy), Rachael Tubbs (West Nottingham Academy), John De Mey (Calvert Hall College High School), Megan Pitz (West Nottingham Academy), Tristan Adams (North Harford High School), Hannah Lavelle (Parkville High School), and Adetomiwa Famodu (West Nottingham Academy).

Helping Anna's House help women help themselves

JUMP, from AA# managers to gain career and life skills counseling and employment assistance. Anna's House has six paid staff members, three full-time and three part-time. Therefore, volunteers do most of the work at Anna's House. Jackson said 1,827 volunteers contributed 6,750 hours of service to Anna's House in 2010. During that time, the charity provided assistance to 40 women and 63 children. To cover what residents' rents do not, Anna's House solicits grant-based support from Harford County, HUD, private groups like The Dresher Foundation Inc. and financial support through its own fundraising efforts.

The Anna's House 19th Annual Breakfast is scheduled for 8 to 9:30 a.m. at the Maryland Golf and Country Clubs, 1335 E. MacPhail Road in Bel Air. The $75 tickets can be purchased by calling Cindy Hanley, 410-803-2130. Jackson said another fundraiser, this one organized by the Knights of Columbus Bel Air Council 4714, will be held the next evening. The KCs will host a Shrimp and Bull Roast April 9, 7 to 11 p.m., at 23 Newport Road in Forest Hill. Tickets for the roast are $35 and can be purchased by calling To Rappold, 443-371-6862, or Charlie Mac, 410-879-2110.