America's Miss 2010 and Volunteers Gear Up For the NFL Sanctioned Punt, Pass & Kick Football Festival To Benefit The Arc

Alison Tripple, America's Miss 2010, will be one of many volunteers helping out at the NFL Sanctioned Punt, Pass & Kick Football Festival to benefit The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region and individuals with developmental disabilities. The event is scheduled for Sunday, September 19th at Cedar Lane Regional Park in Bel Air.

Originally from Lancaster, PA, Alison is a senior at Towson University studying Elementary & Special Education and in pursuit of a Masters Degree in Educational Psychology. "I enjoy being an active member of my community and volunteering with organizations involving children," says Alison.

The event is sponsored by DTLR. The Football Extravaganza, sponsored by Harford Mutual Insurance Companies, will feature high school and corporate team competitions.

To register for the event (ages 6-15) visit: www.nflppk.com
Participation is FREE and open to people of all abilities!

To volunteer: Contact The Arc at 410-879-6785, extension 338.

To sponsor or participate as a community vendor: Contact The Arc at 410-879-6785, extension 356 or visit us on the web at www.arcncr.org and click on Punt, Pass, & Kick.

The Arc offers a wide variety of services to individuals with developmental disabilities in Harford, Cecil, and Kent counties, both children and adults, to make informed choices with their lifestyles, vocations, education and recreational pursuits, and to assure stable and nurturing lives among their families and friends.
