This tournament was in memory of Tim Quinn, Former Executive Director of The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region, who passed away in January 2010 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Tim served as the Executive Director of The Arc since 1990 and during his tenure he transformed the organization from facility to community based support services. Tim was a trailblazer who loved life, people, and creating change that made a difference in the lives of others. Tim was widely known and admired for his visionary leadership and commitment to community building, and because of his efforts, countless thousands of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities are leading fuller lives.

The Route 40 Business Association was established in 1987 by a small group of businessmen. Since then, the organization has grown from that small group to an association of setting new standards for business and community in the Edgewood/Joppa area. The dedication of the association is not limited only to the betterment of business, but strives to serve as a bridge between community and business to the benefit of all.

The Arc offers a wide variety of services to individuals with developmental disabilities in Harford, Cecil, and Kent counties, both children and adults, to make informed choices with their lifestyles, vocations, education and recreational pursuits, and to assure stable and nurturing lives among their families and friends.
