"Tastings By The Turf" Wine & Food Fest
James Lindner of Langmeil Winery in Australia To Volunteer At Tastings

The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region & Cedar Lane Regional Park will host "Tastings By The Turf" Wine & Food Fest on Sunday, October 3, 2010 from 12:00-5:00PM at Cedar Lane Regional Park in Bel Air, Maryland.

The event sponsored by Jordan Thomas Salon & Spa, Macy's, Ronnies Fine Wine & Spirits and Smyth Jewelers will feature tastings from Harford County restaurants and sampling wines from around the world.

Restaurants include Liberatores, Giovanni's, Pairings Bistro, Box Hill Pizzeria, and more.

Special thanks to sponsors: Country Garden Center, Sign Central, Signs By Tomorrow, Smyth Jewelers, and WXCY FM 103.7.

James Lindner of Langmeil Winery in Southern Australia will be helping to pour the tastings. Langmeil's award winning premium range is internationally recognized and has contributed towards the winery being regarded as one of the top premium wine producers in Australia. Family owned and operated, Langmeil is believed to be the home of the Barossa and Australia's oldest known surviving vineyard planted to Shiraz in 1843. Langmeil has been awarded 'Five Star' rating in the James Halliday Australian Wine Competition's 2006, 2007, 2008 & 2009, placing it amongst the very top echelon of Australian Wineries. James Lindner was inducted as a Baron Of The Barossa, the Wine Fraternity founded in 1974 and was acknowledged for his considerable contribution to the Barossa for over 20 years

Live entertainment will be provided by Chalk Dust, Vocal Obsession, and Angela Mazza with DJ Saxman of Still Hot Entertainment. The Raven's game will be broadcasted against the Pittsburg Steelers promptly at 1PM. Rain Date: October 17, 2010.

Tickets are $30 and can be purchased on-line at www.arcncr.org and at Ronnies Fine Wine & Spirits at 1514 Rock Spring Rd in Forest Hill, and Jordan Thomas Salon & Spa at 111 Fulford Avenue in Bel Air.

Arts and crafts exhibitors welcome!
