

the likes of Carry the Powder Keg (first aid stretcher carry), Don't Spill the Rum (scout teamwork), Find the Treasure (map and compass orienteering), Walk the Plank (Morse code signaling), Raise the Sail (pioneering), and Raise the Flag (fire building).

The patrols, all dressed in pirate garb and, full of pirate patrol spirit, successfully completed every challenge One-Eyed Maddy put to them. They then took their earned riches to Ye Olde home a bit tired, wet, and dirty; but full of excitement, wonder, and legends of their own.

Troop 965 is committed to providing opportunities that develop each boy's moral strength and character, citizenship, leadership, and physical, mental, and emotional fitness by providing opportunities to have fun, go camping, be with friends, and experience and learn things that are exciting and challenging. Join us at www.troop965.org.

Pictured left, Troop 965 scouts Leland Cox, Dan Butz, Evan Dowdy, Paul Butz, Thomas "Boomer" Carr, William Molali, Chris Martinez and Ryan Hundertmark.

The Aberdeen Rotary Club donated $8,000 to The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region from

IN THE NEWS

A Bright Idea Advertising and Public Relations.

Founded in 1998, Jordan Thomas Salon and Spa is located in Bel Air, and maintains over 50 employees. Jordan Thomas Salon and Spa strives to use creativity and professionalism in providing clients quality experiences, exceeding expectations through salon and spa services including hair, nails, make up, massage, waxing, facial treatments and bridal styling. Jordan Thomas Salon and Spa has been named a Top Salon by Baltimore Magazine and Harford Magazine, as well as one of the Top 200 Salons by SALON TODAY magazine in 2010 and 2011.

For more information, contact Jordan Thomas Salon and Spa at 410-879-6600 or www.jordanthomassalonandspa.com.

AMATEUR WINE: Amateur wine making was added to the home and garden judging at the Harford County Farm Fair as a new open class last year.