After dArc 2007 A Success

[ABERDEEN, MD] – Over 450 people attended the third annual After dArc celebrity chef and auction event hosted by The Arc Northern Chesapeake Region on March 31st, 2007 at the Maryland Golf & Country Clubs! The event raised over $90,000 in funds to support The Arc's Supported Living Services. Funds raised will help individuals meet the needs of everyday life, to remain connected to family and friends, and to take an active part in their communities.

Celebrity Chefs, Art Donovan, Toni Linhart, Al Bumbry, Scott Garceau, Bob Turk, Donna Hamilton, Brent Harris, and Alan and Lois Elkin joined Harford County celebrities, County Executive David Craig, Delegate Barry Glassman, Daniele Fleischer, Tony Meoli, Sheryl Davis Kohl, Bill Cox, and Mary Chance prepared an American and International menu.

The event included a silent and live auction including a basket competition, martini bar, and music and dancing to the live sounds of Tony Berry and New Money. The winners of the basket competition included Amanda Florists, Bel Air Florist, Fountain Green Veterinary, Jordan Thomas Salon & Spa, Deborah May & Louise Costello of Long and Foster Realtors, Maryland Golf & Country Clubs, Open Door Café, Pastore's Deli, Reliable Church Hill Distributors, and Visage Salon & Day Spa.

Claudia Moore of Elkton won the "Be Wined, Be Dined" raffle, sponsored by Visage Salon & Day Spa and Jordan Thomas Salon & Spa, that included over $1,500 in gift certificates to area restaurants.

The Arc would like to thank its many sponsors for their support that made this event a success:
